About this form

Warning: Please ensure the following answers are true and complete. Failure to disclose material facts (i.e. facts likely to influence Prudential's assessment or acceptance of this application) may lead to cancellation of the contract. If you are in any doubt as to whether facts are material full details should be provided.

Copies of the plan terms and conditions and the completed application form are available on request.

This form should not be used for members whose death benefit is to be a fixed amount, for whom the scheme investment strategy is not to apply, or where a single contribution is to be made.

Notes

- Age admission, column 7:
   Insert "Y" if you have verified the member's date of birth.
- 2. Yearly Earnings, column 8:

This figure will allow us to give more meaningful quotations. We will compare estimated eventual benefits with the estimated retirement earnings. If you don't give an earnings figure, we will use the current weekly average earnings figure projected to the retirement date for the comparison.

3. Absent from work, column 15:

Insert "Y" for any member who is to be provided with death benefit and has been absent from work due to illness or injury in the last two months and complete the section on the back of this form.

- 4. All questions should be answered for all members. If there is no member contribution or death benefit insert "nil". (Columns 13 and 14.)
- 5. Employers must have the written agreement of the member to deduct any contributions from the member's earnings. Forms are available from Prudential for this purpose, if desired.
