

Taking benefits when you have a Personal Lifetime Allowance or your benefits exceed the Standard Lifetime Allowance

There is an overall Lifetime Allowance (LTA), which will cover all your pension plans except your state pension or those inherited from someone else (such as a spouse's pension), however many you have. This limit is commonly referred to as the Standard Lifetime Allowance. Whenever benefits are taken, or you reach age 75, we must test all your pension entitlement against the LTA. If you have benefits over the standard LTA, there may be a tax charge on the excess when you take your benefits.

The standard LTA for the 2022/23 tax year has been set at £1,073,100 and is due to remain at this level up to the 2025/26 tax year. Protection may be available for those that may exceed the LTA. If you think this may affect you we strongly suggest you seek financial advice. For people with a protected pension age (PPA) earlier than 55, their Lifetime Allowance may be less than the standard Lifetime Allowance. No such reduction will apply where their PPA is 55 or greater.

Pension Protections

Pension savings before 6 April 2006

Some people had built up pension pots worth more than £1.5 million before 6 April 2006 when the lifetime allowance was introduced. Lifetime allowance protection was introduced so that they didn't have to pay the lifetime allowance charge on pension pots built up before this date. There are two main types of protection for pension pots built up before this date, these are:

- Primary protection
- Enhanced protection

It is no longer possible to apply for Primary and/or Enhanced Protection.

Pension savings before 6 April 2012

The lifetime allowance gradually increased to £1.8 million by 6 April 2011 but from 6 April 2012 the lifetime allowance was reduced to £1.5 million. A new form of protection called Fixed Protection was introduced to protect those who might have already built up pension pots of more than £1.5 million or had planned to do so.

It is no longer possible to apply for Fixed Protection 2012.

Pension savings before 6 April 2014

From 6 April 2014 the lifetime allowance was reduced to £1.25 million. A new form of protection called Fixed Protection 2014 was introduced to protect those who might have already built up pension pots of more than £1.25 million or had planned to do so.

It is no longer possible to apply for Fixed Protection 2014.

From 6 April 2014 it was possible to apply for Individual Protection which is for individuals with pension rights valued over £1.25 million on 5 April 2014 and enables further saving under a pension scheme whilst benefiting from protection. It will give individuals a lifetime allowance that is the value of their pension rights on 5 April 2014, up to an overall maximum of £1.5 million.

It is no longer possible to apply for Individual Protection 2014.

Pension savings before 6 April 2016

From 6 April 2016 the lifetime allowance was reduced to £1 million. A new form of protection called Fixed Protection 2016 was introduced to protect those who might have already built up pension pots of more than £1 million or had planned to do so.

Individual Protection 2016 was also introduced. This is for individuals with pension rights valued over £1 million on 5 April 2016 and enables further saving under a pension scheme whilst benefiting from protection. It will give individuals a lifetime allowance that is the value of their pension rights on 5 April 2016, up to an overall maximum of £1.25 million.

There is currently no closing date for applying for Individual/Fixed Protection 2016.

You must provide us with a print out or copy of your protection certificate.

Other Lifetime Allowance Protection

There are also some other instances where individuals can apply to HMRC for an increased Lifetime Allowance factor. Applications for these also need to be made to HMRC, but there are varying timescales for these. There is more information on Lifetime Allowance protections and how to apply on the HMRC website: gov.uk/guidance/pension-schemes-protect-your-lifetime-allowance

Additional information form

Please use black ink and write in CAPITAL LETTERS or tick ☒ as appropriate. Any corrections must be initialled. Please do not use correction fluid as this will invalidate your form.

We are required by HMRC to test all your pension entitlement against the LTA at age 75, whether or not that entitlement has been drawn by that point.

HMRC requires us to report to them regarding pensions where the Lifetime Allowance is affected. Even where the Lifetime Allowance has not been exceeded it might be necessary to report information to HMRC e.g. with Enhanced Protection. Where relevant, the information requested in this form will enable us to meet this requirement.

Including area code.

Are you already getting a pension income from any previous employer's scheme or other pensions (elsewhere and/or with Prudential)?

Yes

☐

No

If you answered No to both of these questions, you can ignore most of this form & go to step 4.

If you answered Yes to either of these questions, please complete the steps in the following tables. These cover details of all of your UK pensions but ignore pensions from the State.

Step 1: What benefits are you taking now?

Do you expect to take other benefits on, immediately before or just after the benefits covered by this quote or have you reached age 75?

Yes

☐

No

If No, go to step 2.

If Yes, please provide details. You must nominate the order you will take them even where you are taking benefits at the same time. In HMRC terms, you must nominate the order for each Benefit Crystallisation Event (BCE), including your Prudential benefits. We need this information to establish which benefits will be covered by any unused LTA and any which may be liable to a tax charge.

If you have reached age 75 your total pension entitlement must be tested against the LTA in accordance with HMRC rules. Please provide the details below for any other pension arrangements you have including all arrangements with Prudential, that have not been captured in the other sections of this form. The nominated order will be used to determine any HMRC reporting requirements.

Order	Scheme name/ pension provider, address, and plan or reference number	Date when you want benefits to start#	Expected value of benefits £	Expected value of tax free cash £	% of LTA used*
2
3
4
5

If you are completing this as you have reached age 75 and you are not taking your benefits at this time, please insert "N/A".

* We need a copy of any statement(s) provided to you by the scheme or pension provider showing the % of the LTA already used. If these have not yet been paid/LTA% not yet identified we will use the expected value. We will use the nominated order in both instances.

The nominated order may differ from the order in which arrangements are eventually paid, however as long as all providers are given the same nominated order, HMRC reporting requirements will be met

Continue on a separate sheet if necessary.

Step 2: What benefits have you taken since 6 April 2006?

Step 3: What benefits have you taken before 6 April 2006?

Are you receiving an income from any other benefits, including income from an income drawdown plan, which started before 6 April 2006?

Yes

☐

No

If No, go to step 4.

If Yes, you must confirm details, including any income/pension you are receiving from Prudential, of:

Pension/Annuity (excluding any drawdown income): The yearly rate of pension (before tax deduction) at your first Benefit Crystallisation Event (BCE) on or after 6 April 2006, or if earlier, at age 75.*

These will be valued against the Lifetime Allowance by multiplying the yearly amount of pension by 25.

Scheme name/ pension provider, address, and plan or reference number	Date when benefits started	Date of first BCE	Yearly amount of pension £*

Continue on a separate sheet if necessary.

Drawdown Income (See note 1)

Scheme name/ pension provider, address, and plan or reference number	Date when benefits started	Date of first BCE	Yearly amount of pension/ drawdown £

Step 3 continued on next page.

Note 1

If Capped Drawdown at date of first BCE, the yearly amount is the maximum income applicable in the Drawdown year in which the date the first BCE occurred on or after 6 April 2006. These are valued against the lifetime allowance by multiplying the yearly amount by 25.

The same applies for Flexible Drawdown, however, it is the maximum income applicable in the Drawdown year in which the Flexible Drawdown declaration was completed, which is multiplied by 25.

Information we need from you – continued

Step 3: What benefits have you taken before 6 April 2006? – continued

If first BCE on or after 6/4/15 (See note 2)

Scheme name/ pension provider, address, and plan or reference number	Date when benefits started	Date of first BCE	Yearly amount of pension/ drawdown £

Note 2

If Capped Drawdown at date of first BCE, the relevant drawdown year is that in which the date of the first BCE applies. These will be valued against the Lifetime Allowance at your first BCE on or after 6 April 2006 by multiplying 80% of the maximum income by 25.

If Flexi-Access Drawdown at first BCE, the relevant drawdown year is that in which funds were first converted to Flexi-Access Drawdown. These will be valued against the Lifetime Allowance at your first BCE on or after 6 April 2006 by multiplying 80% of the maximum income by 25.

If Flexible Drawdown prior to 6 April 2015, the yearly amount is the maximum income payable in the Drawdown year in which the Flexible Drawdown declaration was completed. Where that Drawdown year began before 27 March 2014, the yearly amount is multiplied by 25. Where that Drawdown year began on or after 27 March 2014, it is 80% of the yearly amount which is multiplied by 25.

Step 4: What type of “LTA Protection” are you entitled to, if any?

You may have applied to HMRC to protect a higher LTA. Please confirm which type of LTA Protection or LTA Enhancement Factors, if any, apply to you and attach a photocopy/print out of the appropriate HMRC certificate. In the case of Fixed Protection 2016 and/or Individual Protection 2016, please provide the reference number issued by HMRC as evidence of your LTA protection. You can get more information on these from HMRC website.
