A separate confirmation must be completed for each customer (e.g. joint holders, trustee cases and joint life cases). Where a 3rd party is involved, e.g. a payer of contributions who is different from the customer, the identity of that person must also be verified, and a confirmation provided.

This form can't be used to verify the identity of any customer that falls into one of the following categories:

- those who are exempt from verification as being an existing customer of the introducing firm prior to the introduction of the requirement for such verification;
- those who have been subject to Simplified Due Diligence under the Money Laundering Regulations; or
- those whose identity has been verified using the source of funds as evidence.
