

Declaration of beneficial ownership

Supplementary form for trustee and company applications

Notes to help you

This form should be used along with all applications by a Trust or Corporate Entity.

Before completing this form, you must read the Privacy Notice in Section 3. It explains how we use your personal data and why we're collecting it.

The personal information you provide is being collected for the purpose of entering into a contract and to discharge our legal responsibilities. If you don't provide the requested information, your application will not be processed.

Prudential International Assurance plc requires this information so that we can meet our legal and regulatory obligations. We're required to identify and verify those persons or entities that are beneficial owners of a trust, corporate entity or other arrangement that has applied for a bond. A beneficial owner is a person or entity that has an interest in the bond or that will receive a benefit arising from payout of the bond.

Please list ALL individuals who are Beneficial Owners in respect of the bond. Please see below for definition of whose details should be provided.

If the personal information details you include in this form in relation to beneficial ownership change at any time, please provide us with the details of the change in writing as soon as possible after such a change takes place, together with the documentation required to verify the change.

Please use black ink and write in CAPITAL LETTERS. Any corrections must be initialled – please don't use correction fluid as this will invalidate your application.

Please send the completed form to: Prudential International, Stirling FK9 4UE.

If you have any queries while completing this form, please speak to your financial adviser or call 0808 234 2200. Lines are open Monday to Friday, 9am to 5pm.

Corporate Entities and LLPs

- Each individual who has an interest in the entity of 25% or more, and/or who exercises control over the management of the entity;
- if no such parties are identified, the beneficial owners are the individuals holding the position of senior management of the entity (at least 2 must be verified).

Partnerships

- any partner with an interest of 25% or more in the capital or profits of the partnership, or a party that exercises control over the management of the partnership, or on whose behalf transactions are conducted.

Non-corporate trusts

- Each individual named beneficiary of the trust entitled to an interest in the trust, regardless of percentage interest.

Corporate trusts (including QROPS providers unless the QROPS is regulated)

- Each individual named beneficiary of the trust entitled to an interest in the trust, regardless of percentage interest.
- Where the beneficiary of an interest in the trust is not an individual, i.e. it is a corporate body, any individual who controls that corporate body and/or has an interest in it of 25% or more will be the beneficial owner(s) with regard to the interest entitlement of that corporate body in the trust.
- Where the Settlor is not an individual, i.e. it is a corporate body, any individual who controls that corporate body and/or has an interest in it of 25% or will be the beneficial owner(s) with regard to the interest entitlement of that corporate body in the trust.
- Protector of the trust.
- any individual who has control over the trust e.g. the trustees. If details of the trustees are given elsewhere in the application, they do not need to be provided again here.

Section 3 – How we use your personal information – continued

Who we share your personal information with and why

We'll share your personal information within M&G plc and with our Business Partners, for any of the purposes set out in Part A. If you have a joint policy or investment, the other person may receive your personal information too. If appropriate, we may also pass on your personal information to financial crime prevention agencies, any legal, regulatory or government bodies.

As we, M&G plc, and some of our Business Partners are global companies, we might need to send your personal information to countries that have different data protection laws to the UK or the European Economic Area. These transfers will only be:

- › to countries in respect of which the European Commission has issued a data protection 'adequacy' decision, or
- › to other countries, such as India or the United States of America, where appropriate safeguards have been put in place.

If you want to know more about the above safeguards – like our use of the European Commission's Model Clauses which govern the transfer of information outside of the European Economic Area – further information is available on request.

We keep your personal information for a set amount of time

Your personal information will be stored either for as long as you (or your joint policyholder) are our customer, or longer if required by law or as is otherwise necessary. It'll always be in line with our data retention policy.

Part B – Reference checks

For certain products, we may use approved credit reference agencies, tracing companies, financial crime prevention agencies, or publicly available information, to help us to check your identity, as well as to prevent fraud and money laundering; this may include checks on your current or previous addresses. Results of these may be recorded for future reference.

These checks may also be carried out for a joint policy holder or person(s) that you provide personal information on. Should we ever lose contact with you, we may use these agencies to verify your address to help us get back in touch.

Any transfer of your personal information will always be done securely.

Part C – We may use your personal information to make automated decisions or profile you

We, M&G plc, our Business Partners, and our Marketing Partners may use your personal information to make automated decisions affecting you or to conduct other profiling (for example, marketing profiling).

To the extent that we conduct such automated decision making activity, we'll provide you with further information at the appropriate time.

Part D – Use of your sensitive personal information

For certain products or services, we'll need to process your sensitive personal information, such as information relating to health, genetics, biometric identifiers and sexual orientation. To the extent that we need your explicit consent to process this kind of personal information in the manner described in Parts A, B, and C, you explicitly provide your consent by signing and returning this form.

Part E – You're in control

When it comes to how we use your personal information, you've got the right to:

- › request a copy of your personal information for free (we may charge you for this if the request is manifestly unfounded or excessive).
- › in certain circumstances request that we move your personal information to another organisation if you want us to;
- › request that we correct anything that's wrong, or complete any incomplete personal information;
- › ask us to delete your personal information if it is no longer needed for the purposes set out in Part A or if there is no other legal basis for the processing;
- › limit how we use your personal information or withdraw your consents you have given for the processing of your personal information (including consents to automated decision making);
- › object to us using your personal information for direct marketing (including related profiling) or other processing based on legitimate interests;
- › complain to a data protection authority or another independent regulator about how we're using it.

If you want to do any of these things, or would like an explanation as regards these rights, we've explained how you can get in touch in the 'Contact Us' section.

If you do need to speak to us, it'll be useful to have to hand that the data controller of your personal information is PIA. PIA has also appointed a Data Protection Officer who can be reached at the details shown in the 'Contact Us' section.

We may monitor or record calls or any other communication we have with you. This will be for training, for security, or to help us check for quality.

Part F – Acting on someone else's behalf?

If you give us personal information about another person (or persons), we'll take that to mean they have appointed and authorised you to act on their behalf. This includes providing consent to:

- › our processing of their personal information and sensitive personal information (as we've explained in Parts A, B, C, and D above);
- › you getting any information protection notices on their behalf.

If for any reason you are concerned as to whether you are permitted to provide us with the other person's information, please contact us on the phone number provided in the 'Contact Us' section before sending us anything.

Section 3 – How we use your personal information – continued

Part G – Direct marketing

From time to time, we, M&G plc and our Marketing Partners may like to contact you by electronic or non-electronic means with details about products, services and any special offers. Please note that any consent you give will not apply to M&G Investments Group and Prudential UK as they operate their own customer databases and may contact you separately.

If you consent to us contacting you for this purpose, please tick to say how we may contact you (tick as many or as few as you like).

Email Phone Text

And if you change your mind, and/or you would like to opt-out of receiving direct marketing, it's easy to let us know. Just contact us at the details noted in the 'Contact Us' section.

If you want to exercise your rights in Part E or if you require any other information about any other part of this notice, you can contact us in a number of different ways.
