Tax warning

Tax may be payable when you make either a partial or full cash in. If you're not sure as to how your withdrawal will be taxed please speak to your financial adviser BEFORE submitting this form.

Prudential International can't, under any circumstances, undertake tax calculations for either bondholders or their advisers.

There are different tax consequences depending on how you cash in your bond. These depend on whether the withdrawal is made by cashing in full policies (segments) or by cashing in across all policies. Cashing in across all policies uses the 5% tax-deferred allowance.

Please note that any Ad-hoc or Ongoing Adviser Charges that are met from the bond will count towards the 5% tax-deferred allowance.

Please note the 5% tax-deferred allowance does not apply to company bondholders.

Because tax rules can change, the impact of taxation (and any tax relief) depends on your individual circumstances.

Section B – Partial withdrawals<sup>1, 2, 3</sup>

Please note: If you've invested in a PruFund Protected Fund, any withdrawals will erode the Guaranteed Minimum Fund.

If you have a current Regular Withdrawal in place this will not be changed to reflect the reduction in policies – you will need to submit an amendment instruction if you wish these to change.

To make a partial withdrawal from your bond, please choose ONE of the following options<sup>1, 2, 3</sup>

I wish to cash in  (insert number) policies.

Option 2 – Withdraw a specified amount by fully cashing in policies

(Please note that we will cash in the appropriate number of policies to reach the closest possible figure below the amount you require. The balance will then be taken across all the remaining policies. Please specify your fund choices for this balance overleaf.)

Please note: If you've invested in a PruFund Protected Fund, cashing in policies will erode the Guaranteed Minimum Fund.
